What are the duties of Jam Crew?

- Wear your QCDO Jam Crew attire so that you stand out in class! You must wear your attire in class 8 times during your UL month (and also attend a minimum of 10 classes) in order to get your monthly discount.
- Jam Crew positions themselves so that they can provide other class participants with a model of the moves that the instructor is doing. It is great to have Jam Crew on the front row, but it's also great to have them in the middle of the room too!
- Jam Crew embodies the message "If you are moving, you are doing it right". Even if the choreo is new or difficult, others can always see that you are moving and trying your best. Jam Crew will always try their best to "get" the moves.
- Jam Crew shows different variations of the moves. It is good for participants to see the different levels of difficulty.
- Jam Crew makes noise! They clap, hoot and holler before class, between and during songs, and sing loudly when at all possible.
- Jam Crew changes positions during class. Take initiative to move to different locations of the room (far right, far left and far back) during certain songs to assist with songs that "turn around" the room.
- Jam Crew may be invited to stand by the instructor at the front of the room (or on the stage). If you are interested in this option, let the instructor know. For the safety of our classes and to allow for training of new instructors, we ask that you wait to be invited before coming up front.
- Jam Crew helps to make new people feel comfortable by welcoming them to class, encouraging them and talking to them about your experience with class. Offer to help with any of the moves and answer questions they have about the classes.
- Jam Crew members know the class procedures and set a good example for others by following them. This includes proper usage of class cards, following sign-in procedures and listening to opening & closing announcements.
- Finally, Jam Crew tells everyone they know about QCDO classes. You can keep spreading the word about our classes by telling people about the First Time FREE coupon on www.QueenCityDanceOut.com
